

The perfect Italian wedding in Chianti

Chianti is another perfect place to enjoy delicious wines and enjoy astonishing countryside views. Palaces like Castello Di Meleto can be an option to consider, especially for those brides and grooms who are wine lovers – and that know their guests are wine fans – as there are activities such as wine tasting especially organised for weddings. In addition, couples can celebrate their special day during summer or winter, as there are wedding packages that this luxury hotel offers regardless of season. They are committed to making every wedding a memorable and romantic experience, and that's why they also offer a wedding planning service to avoid unnecessary stress for the future husbands and wives.

Author by: Castello Meleto